

Your Marvelous Love

“For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, saith the Lord; I will put my laws into their mind, and write them in their hearts: and I will be to them a God, and they shall be to me a people: And they shall not teach every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: for all shall know me, from the least to the greatest. For I will be merciful to their unrighteousness, and their sins and their iniquities will I remember no more.” Hebrews 8: verses 10, 11 and 12.

Lord, I thank you for your marvelous love. You took all my sins away and you buried them into the deepest part of the ocean, and there are no floating markers to remind you of where they were buried. By your mercies, you led me to where I could find greener pastures. Because I have seen your marvelous love, and your mercy towards me; my expectations in the greatness of your power, have caused my faith in you to ascend to reach the clouds. Lord I have seen, and I have felt your wonderful and marvelous love towards me and with grateful heart, I humbly bow before you, my gracious and marvelous Lord.
